

Summit Meeting Agenda

November 2024

Topic: Building and Leading a First Class Team

Throughout this year's Summits, we have focused on building a great culture, measuring KPI's and boosting the capacity of your teams. November's Summit will bring these themes together focussing on how to translate this into 'Building and Leading a First Class Team'.

We'll discuss strategies for engaging and managing a high performing team, alongside practical advice on planning for the people and training you need to develop your ideal team.

Who should attend?

This session is suitable for anyone in your firm who leads and manages teams and contributes to org chart decisions.
